

WATERS STILL HOLD BODIES OF DROWNED

Fruitless Search Made for 29 Victims of Cutter Dis- aster.

U. S. SAILORS GO DOWN IN HARBOR

New York, N. Y., Oct. 3.—A search was continued today for the bodies of the United States sailors drowned Saturday evening when the cutter in which they were returning to their ship, the New Hampshire, was overturned, but up to 11 o'clock this morning not one of the 29 reported drowned had been recovered. Sixteen other sailors were reported missing from the battleship and are believed to have overboarded their shore leave.

The men perished by the swamping of the cutter, which was being towed to the vessel at anchor in the Hudson river.

According to Captain Rodgers, no arrangements have been made for the funeral of any body when found, but as picked up they will be taken to the hospital ship Solace, now anchored in the Hudson. They will be held there until claimed by relatives or friends. All the next of kin of the missing men have been notified, but if any of these turn up, a second telegram will be sent giving the good news. Relatives will also be apprised by wire when a body is recovered.

Karl a Hero.

R. Karl, one of the men supposed to have been drowned, is credited with having saved four men. Karl was a big fellow and a good swimmer. In the water he held up two men until two life preservers came his way. He gave these to the weaker two and then swam around and found two other men who were exhausted and sinking. These two he held up until they were picked up by a boat. Karl, however, of his own safety, he did not attempt to get aboard, for fear of overloading it. Nobody seems to have seen him afterwards. The account of his bravery was given by his shipmates.

All day Sunday police boats dotted the river above West 157th street, their crews grappling for bodies. But their efforts were without success. Karl's body being recovered. Rivermen said they were not surprised, for when the accident occurred, they declared, the tide was running out like a mill race. It will probably be several days before any more are found.

River Front Crowded.

Along the water front in the vicinity of the accident, crowds gathered, rushing hither and thither seeking formation. Many women were among them, anxiety depicted on their faces. They were looking for news of relatives or friends, who had shore leave and should have reported back on the New Hampshire yesterday evening.

The midshipmen on the landing float were courteous in answering questions, but when it came to the point of giving news they referred everyone to the officer of the deck on board the battleship.

Court of Inquiry Convened.

On board the flagship Louisiana rear admiral Vreeland convened a court of inquiry to determine the exact cause of the accident and place the responsibility. A number of the men who were on board the ill-fated boat told their stories. A report of the findings of the court will be forwarded to the navy department. Whether midshipman Chevalier, who was in charge of the barge, testified was not learned. Neither could it be ascertained whether Chevalier was in the ship's hospital, where he was taken in a delirious condition after the accident.

It is generally believed that the barge, heavily loaded with sailors and marines returning from shore leave, was towed into the heavy swells of a passing steamer, rising for a moment like a cork, the barge then plunged into the trough between two waves, one of which broke over the side and swamped it.

CHANGE IN BANKING LAWS WILL BE ASKED

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 3.—That the American Bankers' association, which convened here today, must take some action looking to a change in laws governing banking and currency and that congress should be asked to enact such laws, is the opinion of the leading financiers who arrived in Los Angeles today. Just what form of new laws will be asked or recommended has not been decided upon in advance, but the great question will be discussed in all its forms and phases by some of the ablest bankers of the country.

THE WATER PLANT NOT TRANSFERRED

Details Not Yet Arranged. Contractors Granted Time on Garbage Plant.

Pending the completion of preliminary details, the transfer of the properties of the International Water company to the city of El Paso will not be made for several days, according to the announcement Monday morning of Mayor C. E. Kelly. The bonds comprising the $375,000 payment on the plant, have been received from Austin and have been signed by mayor Kelly and city clerk Fassett.

It is probable that a special meeting of the council will be held at the time the actual transfer of the properties is made, which may be this week. The council will meet in order to approve the resolution for the sale, according to the mayor.

Sorenson & Morgan, the successful bidders for sections 1 and 2 of the sewage and garbage disposal plant, and W. E. Anderson, who will build section 2, have been granted an extension of time to close their contracts with the city. Mr. Anderson said Monday morning that city attorney W. M. Caldwell had not yet drawn the contracts.

EL PASO IS STILL SHY ON RAINFALL.

During the past month El Paso was shy 1.21 inches of rain and since the first of January of this year the total deficiency has reached a total of 4.10 inches of the necessary sky weeps. The heaviest rainfall of the month was on September 15, when .69 of an inch fell. However, while rain has been somewhat shy, the city has an average daily excess of 2.3 degrees of temperature, an accumulated excess of 628 degrees since January 1, 1910. The highest temperature for the past month was on September 3, when the thermometer ran up to 87 degrees and the lowest was on September 29, when the mercury dropped to 59 degrees.

WORKMEN FIND MANY BODIES OF VICTIMS HELD BY BIG GIRDERS

Tons of Twisted Steel Prevent Recovery of Dead in Los Angeles Times Disaster—Number of Bodies Are Found by Workers in Wreckage, But Cannot Be Reached—Revised List of the Dead Is Given Out.

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 3.—Pinned down by tons of twisted steel girders, a number of bodies were found early today by the workmen engaged in removing the debris from the basement of the wrecked Times building. It will be impossible to recover the bodies until the steel crane is placed in position to lift the heavy material out of the way.

It is believed further investigation will bear out the theory of S. W. Crabb, foreman of the composing room, who, in making his escape at the time of the disaster, fell down the elevator shaft and got out only after having been severely burned. Crabb said undoubtedly a number of bodies are at the bottom of the elevator shaft, as others besides himself had stumbled that way.

The police believe that five men were concerned in placing the bomb that wrecked the Times building and in placing the bombs found under the Seehandelar home and at the residence of General Otis.

Five men were seen loitering near the Seehandelar home Friday afternoon. The police have a fair description of the men and every effort is being made to trace their movements from the time they were seen Friday. The police believe they planted all three bombs within a period of one hour Friday night.

SEVENTEEN SUSPECTS HELD.

Seventeen men are now in jail, booked as dynamite suspects. However, the best clue thus far obtained comes from San Francisco from the offices of the Giant Powder company. Bruce McCaul, chief invoice clerk, said today that he could identify three men who purchased 500 pounds of gelatin dynamite on September 23. The man who paid for the dynamite gave the name of A. J. Bryson. He was accompanied by a man giving the name of Morris and an unidentified companion.

McCaul said today the men impressed him as being college bred. Bryson said he wanted the explosive of $5 per cent dynamite. On their orders, the explosive was delivered to the launch Peerless, and he believed it was taken to Los Angeles in this way. The police believe this high explosive was used on the Times building.

TRY YOUNG GIRL ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 3.—Katherine Botti, a pretty 13-year-old Italian girl, was placed on trial today charged with wilful murder of her godfather, Pasquale Volpe.

She sat alone and with apparent composure, listened to the charge that on August 11, she induced Volpe to go into a cellar at their home in Wilmerding and asked him to pick up a sack of potatoes for her and, while he was stooping, struck him on the head with an ax and then ran a hot poker through his body.

Volpe was a boarder at the Botti home since the girl's infancy, and was 45 years old and married.

The girl's defence will be based on the unwritten law.

This famous personage is Sir William Purdie Treloar, bart., former lord mayor of London and one of England's greatest philanthropists. He was given the above unique appellation by the people of London, after he had succeeded in talking the British public out of $350,000 in order to erect a hospital for the care of poverty-stricken, crippled children, of the great city.

Sir William is at present in New York, and is painfully surprised that America has made such slow progress in treating and caring for tuberculous

LEECH'S TRIAL COMMUNITY IN ARMS FEARS ANGRY FATHER

Concord, Wis., Oct. 3.—Every able bodied man in the town of Winter and the surrounding country has been sworn in as a deputy and all the roads approaching the town are guarded by armed men fearing an attack from John Dietz for the shooting of three of his children Saturday by sheriff Madden and posse while the children were driving to town.

Nobody knows what the sheriff will do next. He may storm the Dietz stronghold at Cameron dam, on Thorapple river, or may start a waiting game to try to starve the man out.

John Leslie Dietz, son, aged 20, who escaped to his home with a bullet wound in the right arm after the attack; Helen, aged 14, Johnnie, aged 7, and Mrs. Dietz, are still in possession of the cabin at Cameron dam and cannot be taken by storming, without heavy loss of life.

LOS ANGELES PUTS BAN ON AGITATORS

Council Increases, the Police Force to Hunt Down Un- desirable Characters.

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 3.—Stirred by the fact that the blowing up of the Times plant and the subsequent attempted dynamite outrages has created an emergency that the police force is unable to cope with, the city council today passed an emergency ordinance authorizing the immediate appointment of 40 additional patrolmen and ten sergeants and one lieutenant. These men will be used to hunt down and imprison or drive out of the city the men who have been known to express commendation of the acts of violence and others who have been in trouble with the police since the labor troubles in Los Angeles began several months ago.

It was also determined to make a reward of $10,000 for the detention of each bomb conspirator.

HEARST BEGINS FIGHT ON TAMMANY BIG CHIEF

Devotes First Page of New York American to an Attack on Murphy.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Wm. R. Hearst devotes the first page of his paper, the American, this morning to an attack on Chas. F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, who is depicted as representing every state officer nominated by the Democratic state nominating convention at Rochester. This is the first indication of Mr. Hearst's attitude in the coming campaign.

"The election of the Murphy ticket," says the American, "will be a defeat for every American principle for free and just government. There is no party involved. It is necessary to drive the bosses and crimps of Tammany out of American politics and any party should be defeated that harbors them."

JUDGE FINES TWENTY-ONE VENREMAN

Absence from Court Results
in Penalties Against Men Summoned.

In the cause of the state of Texas vs. John Leech, charged with the murder in the first degree of Ernest Kohlberg on June 17, the defendant being in court and both parties answering ready, the case was called at 9 a. m. Monday in the 34th judicial district court, a special judge Patrick Henry Clarke presiding.

After the roll call of the regular and special venire, which had been summoned for the October term of court and the Leech murder trial, judge Clarke assessed a fine of $10 each against 13 of the special venire, and a fine of $5 each against eight regular venemen because of absence from the courtroom when the case was called for trial. But two of the special venire were called to the stand for preliminary examination. One was J. G. Ware, a distributor for the McCintock company, and J. C. White, sales manager of the El Paso Brick company, both of whom were excused from serving. Ware because he was not a householder, and White because he was a deputy sheriff.

BOTH SIDES READY FOR TRIAL TO BEGIN

Those who were fined for failure to answer to their names when the special venire roll call was held were: J. C. Ross, W. W. Swearingen, Charles Dodson, N. J. Dillon, C. M. Branch, P. F. Brick, J. Y. Robertson, C. H. Webster, F. E. Williams, C. E. Gimbel, J. H. Wolfe, F. W. Brown and J. C. Brown. Those of the regular venire who failed to answer to their names were: Joseph H. Watson, V. R. Stiles, V. K. Sturges, J. H. Smith, R. C. Semple, J. M. Wyatt and H. H. Thorne.

Family Present at Trial.

John Leech, the defendant in the Kohlberg murder trial, appeared in court promptly at 9 o'clock, wearing a new blue suit, a soft shirt and a new lavender four-button tie. Mrs. Leech, accompanied by the two children, a small boy and a girl, sat with him during the morning, and Mrs. Leech frequently consulted with her husband and the attorneys for the defense. Leech seemed as unconcerned as ever and laughed and chatted with his attorneys.

THE KILLING

The Kohlberg killing occurred on the afternoon of June 17. Leech, who was a tenant of Kohlberg at the St. Charles hotel on South El Paso street, was in arrears for the rent of the hotel. And upon receiving notice that he would have to vacate the hotel, he said to have gone to the cigar store of Kohlberg on El Paso and San Antonio streets. The shooting followed. Leech was placed under arrest at a vacant room south of the Kohlberg store and was taken out of town that night for safe-keeping. The grand jury, which was in session at the time, returned an indictment against him the same night of the killing. His preliminary trial was held and he was brought to trial before judge J. R. Harper on June 24. After three days of preliminaries, during which the attorneys for the defense asked for a change of venue, which was overruled, they were granted a continuance on the ground that important witnesses were not in the city. The case was set for the October term of court and a special venire of 150 men was summoned for the trial.

The case was taken up at 11:15 after a recess of 20 minutes, during which special judge Clarke looked up a number of points in law. Preceding this the regular panel was excused until Thursday after being sworn. The trial then proceeded with judge Clarke presiding. District attorney W. D. Howe, and attorneys W. W. Turney, Dan M. Jackson, T. A. Falvey, Victor Moore and M. W. Stanton will handle the state's case during the trial, while the defense will be cared for by judge J. A. Wharton and P. E. Gardner. The district attorney and attorneys Moore and Falvey sat on the state's side of the counter.
